Very Serious Charges

Made to the State Department at Washington

AGAINST A FOREIGN CONSUL.

Our Representative at Morocco Accused of Crooked Transactions, Which Are Being Investigated—All the Douglas Starts for Hayti—Other Washington News.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1.—Charges of a serious character have been made to the State Department during the last year concerning the official and personal conduct of Consul Lewis of Pennsylvania. United States Consul General Lewis, who has been in the office since 1887, is the subject of the charges and also his acting as a representative of the United States in its outside dealings.

Assistant Secretary Wharton, to whom the charges were referred by Mr. Baile, was engaged up to the time of going on his vacation in making an investigation, but this supposed conspiracy, suspension of it may be prolonged for an indefinite period on account of the illness of Mr. Wharton with typhoid fever in Boston. The most recent allegation against Consul General Lewis is made by a newspaper published at Tangier, which goes so far as to make the direct charge of attempted extortion of money from another representative of the United States, Vice Consul Cohen, who is stationed at Mazagan, Morocco.

According to the newspaper Lewis called on Cohen, who is quite wealthy, and demanded 20,000 francs as the price of his retention of office. Cohen indignantly refused to comply with the demand and asked Lewis why he made it. Through an interpreter, according to this account, Lewis said that the consular agency had brought Cohen large profits and he could afford to spare the 20,000 francs from them. Cohen, again refusing, was deprived of his office by Lewis, who offered it without success, to several persons. It was finally accepted by Daniel Madden.

The paper also charges that Cohen was placed under arrest, his papers seized, and the American flag over the consulate hauled down. This story, in effect, has been received at the State Department, but whether in the form of a charge or not cannot be ascertained. State Department officials say that the case is in Assistant Secretary Wharton's hands, and they refuse to discuss it until he returns. Lewis is the son of a wealthy Philadelphia. His wife died recently, and this event is said to have aggravated his alleged penchant for committing misdemeanors. It was he who represented the United States at Tangier during the trouble with the sultan of that district, and whose bold stand was so highly commended in this country.

Brown, for Pension Commissioner.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1.—Gen. C. E. Brown, of Ohio, accompanied by Representative Butterworth, called on Secretary Noble yesterday to discuss the vacancy at the head of the pension bureau. Gen. Brown is probably the strongest candidate now in the field. Mr. Campbell, of Kansas, is actively pushing his claims and Deputy Commissioner Smith is making a strong effort in his own behalf. It is pretty well determined that Mr. Smith will not receive the appointment in fact, Mr. Smith's transfer to some other government office is now freely discussed.

Who Will Go to Yokohama?

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1.—The Evening Star says: Capt. Samuel Kimberly, of Norfolk, Va., is being pressed by the Republican influence of the state for the position of consul general at Yokohama. This is understood to be the only place in the consular or diplomatic service sought by a Virginian. The consulate at Yokohama is the place Mr. George Bain, of Missouri, has been spoken of for. The president has been seriously considering his name for the appointment.

Minister Douglas Starts for Hayti.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1.—Minister and Mrs. Douglas left Washington for New York at 9:40 o'clock yesterday morning, on an express train of the Pennsylvania road. A number of colored people, friends of Mr. Douglas, were at the station. The minister and his wife will sail for Hayti on the United States steamship Kearsarge. It is expected that the vessel will arrive at Port-au-Prince before Oct. 8, when the inauguration of Hippolyte will take place.

From Washington to Toledo.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1.—Dr. Frank T. Howe, of the editorial staff of The Evening Star, has accepted the position of managing editor of The Toledo Blade. He will assume charge next week. Dr. Howe was for many years managing editor of The National Republican. He has held responsible positions with many other newspapers of prominence. He has been the Washington correspondent of The Blade for some time.

Retired from the Army.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1.—The retirement from active service of Maj. Charles H. Hoyt, quartermaster; Capt. Harrison Weeks, eighth cavalry; and Capt. William L. Hoffman, Ninth infantry, has been announced. The resignation of First Lieut. Francis J. Patton, Twenty-first infantry, has been accepted by the president.

Nearly All Back in Washington.

ler, who will return tomorrow, when the regular cabinet sessions will be resumed.

Presented to the President.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1.—Senor Zelaya, the new minister from Honduras, was presented to the president yesterday by Secretary Blaine. The usual complimentary speeches were exchanged.

Estimated Amount of the Debt.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1.—It is estimated at the treasury department that the redemption in the public debt during September will amount to $13,500,000.

PARIS EXPOSITION AWARDS.

President Carnot, His Cabinet and Other High Officials Parlemon.

PARIS, Oct. 1.—The French Republic has added another monster and magnificent feat to the long list of those given in connection with the exhibition.

The Palais de L'Industrie Sunday presented a magnificent appearance during the ceremony of proclamation of exhibition awards. About 3,000 people were seated in the immense nave and in the galleries when the president took his seat in the official tribune to the sound of the "Marseillaise," played by the band of 500 musicians.

Right and left of Carnot sat LeRoyer, president of the senate, and Melne, president of the chamber of deputies. Behind were officers of the president's military household, and ministers, senators and other officials. M. Liphand and George Berger, gorgons in decoration, received the president.

The ministers and ambassadors occupied tribunes to the right and left of the presidential tribune. Conspicuous among the gold-bedecked uniforms was the plain black suit of Whitelaw Reid, American minister. Mme. Carnot, who was seated in the center of the especial tribune reserved for ladies, wore an ivory white dress trimmed with salmon red in front and bonnet with feathers and strings of the same color.

At the conclusion of the "Marseillaise" the curtain rose and disclosed a large stage, with mountain scenery, on which were grouped men from all the French colonies and possessions in the picturesque costumes of their countries. Then from the other end of the nave there came down the double staircase from the gallery a procession of the commissioners of the different nations which participated in the exhibition.

They marched in alphabetical order, beginning with the Argentine republic and ending with Uruguay. Each commission was preceded by the flags and banners of the nation it represented, which were dipped on passing the president. American marines, forty-two in number, under command of Capt. Henry Clay and Cook and Lieut. Paul St. Clair Murphy, with their immaculate white helmets and trim uniforms, were greeted with loud applause. So also were the Russian and Italian groups.

These were followed by delegations of all arms of the French army and navy, from cuirassiers to native troops. After passing the president the different groups went on the stage and grouped themselves around their banners. The variety of flags, costumes and uniforms formed a most artistic effect. Here again the American boys in blue were much admired for their martial appearance as they stood at parade rest. During the rest of the proceedings the procession took thirty minutes to deduce before the president.

A dead silence obtained when the president rose and his discourse in a loud, clear voice, heard in every part of the immense building. He was frequently interrupted by loud and hearty applause. He thanked the exhibitors and visitors for the hearty manner in which they had co-operated in making the exhibition worthy in every way of France.

"May the exhibition of 1889," concluded M. Carnot, "be the commencement of an era of peace and fruitful labor for our country. The politics pursued by France will have found new defenders, and the exhibition of 1889 will thus have served a grand cause of peace and humanity."

The termination of the speech was saluted with loud applause, and long-continued shouts of "Vive Carnot, vive la Republique!"

Girard, minister of commerce, next made the leading speech, which was almost inaudible, during the course of which he said 703 grand prizes had been distributed, besides 5,153 gold medals, 9,090 silver, 9,323 bronze and 8,070 honorable mentions. Bergen then announced the names of the exhibitors who had received awards, and the large crowds went slowly out into the pouring rain, one and all convinced that they had been present at a most imposing spectacle.

THE ST. PAUL ARCHDIOCESE.

Advices from Rome States That It Has Been Divided Into Five Sees.

NEW YORK, Oct. 1.—The Catholic News has received the following cablegram from its correspondent at Rome: Rome, Sept. 30.—St. Paul, Minn., which was recently created an archdiocese, has been divided and henceforth will have five suffragan sees. They are Winona, St. Cloud and Duluth, Minn., and Jamestown and Sioux Falls, Dak. Right Rev. Martin Marty, O. S. B., D.D., now vicar apostolic of Dakota, will be bishop of Sioux Falls; Rev. Joseph B. Cotter, now pastor of the Immaculate Conception church, Minneapolis, will be bishop of Duluth; Rev. John Shanley, of the cathedral, St. Paul, Minn., will be bishop of Jamestown.

Loaned Up.

NEW YORK, Oct. 1.—David Hardfield, the Richmond, Va., pawnbroker, who was brought to this city on an indictment for bigamy, to-day pleaded not guilty and in default of $1,500 bail was sent to the Tombs.

Preparing a Platform

Work of the Delegates of the Social Labor Party,

NOW IN SESSION IN CHICAGO.

The Trouble Between the Factions in New York Brought Up and Referred to a Special Committee—No Report Made. Another Convention Expected in the Near Future.

CHICAGO, Oct. 1.—The delegates to the convention of the Socialist Labor party now in session at Vorwerk's Turner hall, were busy yesterday in preparing a platform which will not be finished until to-morrow.

In the morning, while in executive session, W. L. Rosenberg, the general secretary of the party, read a report reviewing the troubles between the New York factions which originated with the expulsion of the Socialists from the United Labor convention at Syracuse, and culminated two weeks ago in the suspension of Rosenberg, Cierocke, Hintze and Santer, and their ejection from the headquarters of the party at 25 East Fourth street. These four claim they were illegally and wrongfully suspended, and maintain they are now the National executive committee of the party.

The convention now in session is held under the auspices of the four suspended members, and it is possible that another convention will be held in this city about Oct. 12 by Schevitch and his friends. Rosenberg, in his report, charges that Schevitch and Sanial are crooked, and sold out the progressive labor party to the Republicans during the last national campaign. The report was referred to a special committee. The committee discussed the report in the afternoon, and it is expected they will advise the expulsion of Schevitch and Sanial.

Col. Grant and His Father's Tomb.

NEW YORK, Oct. 1.—The New York World publishes the reply of Col. Fred. Grant to a cablegram sent to him at Vienna by The World, calling the colonel's attention to the agitation now going on concerning the removal of the remains of Gen. Grant from Riverside park, New York city, to Washington, D. C., or Springfield, Ill., and asking the colonel to say what the sentiment of the widow and family is in the matter. Col. Grant's reply is to the effect that the "family are ready to accede to any plan which the nation may decide upon, provided that the expressed wish of Gen. Grant that wherever his tomb be that room shall be reserved for the burial of Mrs. Grant by his side may be carried out."

Natural Gas War.

GREENFIELD, Ind., Oct. 1.—The gas war between the People's company and the Greenfield Gas company is still raging. The first-named company agrees to furnish gas as long as gas is found in this field for the sum of $100 for one lot for all purposes, to be paid for at $5 every three months. The Greenfield company makes the same offer, practically, and Saturday night they reduced their monthly rate for stoves, grates, etc., to one-half their former rates. A heating stove now costs but $3.50 per year and a second heater $1.75.

Texas Fever in Pennsylvania.

ELIZ, Pa., Oct. 1.—The Texas fever has broken out in the southeast part of the city with fatal effect. That section of the city was infected by a herd of Texas steers shipped here by Armour & Company. The cattle broke away and attacked men and children, creating a panic. The entire territory covered by the cattle is under the ban of the disease and a score of milk cows have died within forty-eight hours and as many more are deathly sick. The fact that a dairyman's stock is stricken has created a panic among the patrons of his dairy.

Shot by Horse Thieves.

WAVERLY, Iowa, Oct. 1.—Sheriff Hoxie, of Waterloo, was shot in the head at 7 o'clock yesterday evening by one of three horse thieves who were confined in the county jail at that place awaiting trial. The sheriff had just escaped the jail to give the prisoners their supper, when one fired the shot that wounded the sheriff. All of them then escaped, and a large posse are in pursuit.

The Cardinal Cannot Go.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 1.—The dispatch from Ottawa, Ont., stating that Cardinal Gibbons would not attend the unveiling of the statue in memory of Mgr. Guignos, first bishop of Ottawa, on Oct. 8, in Ottawa, is erroneous. Cardinal Gibbons has declined the invitation to be present on account of pressing duties at home.

Injured by a Falling Scaffold.

NEW YORK, Oct. 1.—Five men were injured by the falling of a scaffold on a building in the course of erection at First avenue and Thirty-second street Monday morning. The men fell from the first story to the basement.

As Workers Resume Operations.

Thrown From His Buggy and Killed.

BENJAMIN BUTTERWORTH.

A Reception Tendered Him on His Return to Washington From Abroad.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1.—The reception tendered Representative Benjamin Butterworth last night by Ohio Republicans and others was a great success and amounted to an ovation. Fully 3,000 people were present to welcome the Ohio congressman after his safe return from abroad. Second Assistant Postmaster General Whitfield, president of the Ohio Republican association, made the introductory address. Congressman Butterworth outlined his speech mainly to his travels, and was frequently urged to go on by his admiring hearers, when he intimated that his remarks were about to close. He finished with a brief allusion to Ohio politics, stating his earnest allegiance to the Republican party and his intention to work in the present campaign. The famous Marine band, under Professor Sona, was in attendance.

Some of the Getting a Jury.

CHICAGO, Oct. 1.—The prospect of getting four more jurors in the Cronin case was very good when the court adjourned yesterday. Three practically had been accepted by both sides, and the answers of the fourth, appeared satisfactory to the defense, when it requested Judge McCormick to adjourn over pending its decision on the panel. Jamieson, one of the men temporarily passed Saturday was peremptorily challenged by the state. Six veniremen were examined. One was excused for cause, three challenged peremptorily by the defense, and two temporarily passed.

Death from a Rattlesnake Bite.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Oct. 1.—At Titusville, Fla., Saturday night, W. H. Adams, a postal clerk, accidentally stepped on a rattlesnake as he was walking on the public highway about midnight. The snake buried his fangs in Adams' leg. He twisted a handkerchief about the wound and hurried to a physician, who cupped the wound and administered whisky freely. The treatment was of no avail, and Adams after intense suffering died last night. He was originally from Montreal.

Crookedness in a Soldier's Home.

NEW HAVEN, Oct. 1.—The Union charges that Superintendent Munson, of the Noroton Soldiers' home, has opened letters containing pension checks addressed to inmates of the home, and compelled the veterans to turn the money over to him or be dismissed from the institution. The article is based upon information furnished by a late inmate of the home, who said he was discharged because he refused to give up his check to Superintendent Munson.

Great Storm in Mexico.

CITY OF MEXICO, Oct. 1.—The main force of the great storm that visited the Bajío country within the past few days has abated, although in its tracks desolation is apparent on all sides. The second crop of corn, which was very large, is a partial loss. This will entail great suffering to the laboring classes. Trains on the Mexican Central railroad are again running regularly.

A Chilling Ends in a Riot.

PHILADELPHIA CENTRE, Pa., Oct. 1.—A Hungarian christening at Allport, No. 10 colliery, four miles from here, Sunday, ended in a riot, in which a Hungarian named Mike Ketch was killed and two others seriously hurt. Four of the rioters are in jail, and the police are looking for several others. It is not certain that the murderer has been arrested.

Domestic Trouble Leads to Death.

WILMINGTON, Del., Oct. 1.—The body of Mrs. John Simmons, wife of a farmer, living near Smyrna, Del., was found hanging to a tree in the woods back of the house late yesterday afternoon. She was out down, but had been hanging several hours. Mrs. Simmons was about 35 years of age. Domestic troubles are supposed to have been the cause of suicide.

Fatal Result of a Negro Quarrel.

WAY CROSS, Ga., Oct. 1.—At J. N. Wright's turpentine still, seven miles from Way Cross, William Lewis and Henry Wilson, both negroes, became involved in a fracas. Lewis shot Wilson in the back with a rifle, the ball passing through his body. He died in ten hours. The murder escaped.

The International Congress.

The Washington correspondent of the Cincinnati Commercial Gazette says:

The Congress of American Nations, to meet here this coming week, is regarded by those best acquainted with South American affairs as the most important international event on this continent of recent years. It is Secretary Blaine's project, and he has given long and earnest attention to it.

"Honor to whom honor is due," Hon. James B. McCreary, one of Kentucky's Representatives in Congress, is the author of the bill providing for this international meeting and it was principally through his untiring efforts that the matter was pushed to a successful end at the last session. And now we are told "it is Secretary Blaine's project."

Mr. Blaine undoubtedly has a "project" on hand, as he has been hobnobbing with the delegates to this international congress ever since their arrival. And that project undoubtedly will prove to be, the subsidizing of a line of steamers "to facilitate the exchange of products" between this country and the South American nations. And that means several million dollars of the people's money to some company of ship-owners. That's the Republican way of doing business—tax the masses for the benefit of the classes, oppress the many that a few may become millionaires.

The Democratic plan "to facilitate the exchange of products" between this land and the South American countries is to remove the restrictions to trade in the shape of the present high tariff. Then will these nations bring their goods to this land and will buy of the goods this country manufactures, and the exchange will be mutually advantageous. And there is room for a wonderful increase in trade between these countries. Look at the facts in the case. At present statistics show that these States of Central and South America get eighty-nine per cent. of their imported goods from Europe and only eleven per cent. from the United States. And besides this, as the correspondent above mentioned says, "for every $7 worth of goods we sell to these countries, we buy $18 worth. We buy coffee and sugar from Brazil, wool and hides from Argentine and other La Plata republics, costly lumber from the Amazon and its tributaries, and allow the sellers to take our cash and go to Europe for goods that we should be able to supply from our own manufactories." And these countries could reach us much easier than they do Europe, if it were not for the "Chinese wall of protection" thrown about us.

Let us hope that the international congress to be held this week will recommend the proper remedy.

A YEAR ago the surplus amounted to $107,000,000. A Democratic administration had charge of the affairs of Government then. Six months ago, however, the Republicans assumed charge of affairs, and the interesting statement comes from Washington that the surplus is only $40,000,000, and that this will be practically wiped out by the reports and estimates now being prepared for submission to Congress. In this connection it is well for the tax-payers of the land to remember that the public debt was increased over $7,000,000 in July and August. As surplus distributors the Republicans are a brilliant success.

The people of the land believe in a wise and economical administration of the National Government, but President Harrison and his official family seem to be making a miserable failure along this line.

From March 7, 1885, to June 30, 1885, there were 399 removals of first-class postmasters, while in the first five months of the present Administration, nearly 10,000 were removed. It took the Cleveland Administration twenty-eight months to remove 24 per cent. of the fourth-class postmasters; but its successor succeeded in getting rid of 18 per cent. in five months. And President Harrison professed to be a great civil service advocate during the campaign last fall.

The Court of Appeals has ruled that "under a statute prohibiting the sale of liquor, which excepts from its provisions 'a regular resident practicing physician, who, in good faith, prescribes liquor as a medicine, to his patient,' a druggist may in good faith furnish liquor upon the prescription of a physician without subjecting himself to the penalties of the statute." The decision was made in the case taken up from Fleming County.

Stock and Crops.

The farmer who strays off habitually to town or elsewhere for pastime loses interest in his work, forgets what is to be done and goes down to the dogs by sure degrees, leading a pinched and miserable life on land that might have supplied him and his with more than competence.—N. Y. Tribune.

The four tobacco warehouses at Dover have prized so far this season 1,038 hogsheads of the weed. J. W. Osborn put up 300 hds, H. S. True 246, J. W. Reynolds 312 and J. N. Boyd 180. Says the News: "There will probably be about 100 more hogsheads prized this season in addition to the above figures, by small parties, making 1,138 hds. in all, or 1,365,000 pounds, which cost an average of 10 cents a pound, or about $136,500.

The following is the weekly crop bulletin of the Kentucky State Weather Service, for the week ending Saturday, September 28: The weather of the past week was upon the whole favorable to corn and tobacco, the principal crops being yet unharvested. Light showers fell in some parts of the State during the early part of the week. The past four days were clear and the nights very cool. Corn is fully matured and beyond damage from frost and the crop will largely exceed the average. Tobacco is being rapidly housed, and although several light frosts occurred during the week, no damage resulted. The quality of the crop is only fair, as a rule, and in some places is inferior. Fall seeding and plowing have progressed most favorably during the week, grass lands and pastures are looking well and the potato crop is immense.

BIG FAILURES.

William M. Collins and John Collins Assign for Benefit of Creditors—Assets and Liabilities.

Mr. John Collins, a well-known farmer living near Mill Creek, made an assignment yesterday for the benefit of his creditors. The trustees named in the deed are his sons, Thomas S. Collins and Patrick Collins. The liabilities are placed at about $20,000, but may amount to more than that. The assets consist of two tracts of land, in all about 180 acres, and some personal property, the whole being estimated at something over $20,000.

Mr. Collins' financial embarrassment was caused by the failure of his son, William M. Collins, who made an assignment at Flemingsburg early yesterday morning to Mr. John W. Heflin, cashier of one of the banks at that point. The son has been speculating heavily in tobacco the past year or so. His liabilities are placed at about $37,000 by some, while others who are connected with the case say the amount will reach $50,000. His father indorsed for him to the amount of $20,000 or $25,000, hence the latter's failure, as stated above.

The assignments were, hastened probably, by a suit filed last Friday in the Mason Circuit Court against the son by the Brooks-Waterfield Company of Cincinnati. The members of the company are engaged in the leaf tobacco business at Cincinnati, and in the petition claim that they had advanced to the defendant since last January and paid out and expended for him the sum of $48,432.51. Of this amount he had paid back all but $8,168.38, and judgment was asked for that amount. A general attachment was sworn out and was levied on what property the son had in this county, consisting principally of some 30,000 or 40,000 pounds of tobacco in the defendant's warehouse at Mill Creek.

The principal creditor is the Brooks-Waterfield Company, but several parties in this city and county were caught, among them a number of farmers upon whom the loss will fall the heaviest. John McGraw's claim against them is $2,500, William Luttrell was caught for $800 or $900, Michael Walton for $1,500, a farmer named Fields for $800 or $900 and another party named Ray for several hundred dollars. Among the creditors in this city are the Collins & Rudy Lumber Company, $300; W. B. Mathews & Co., $500, and the State National Bank $5,400.

The State National holds one note against John Collins for $400, one note against William M. Collins and John Collins for $2,500 and one against William M. Collins and John McGraw for $2,500. This latter was given to John McGraw and was endorsed by him to the bank. Suits were filed on these notes yesterday.

Another suit against Wm. M. Collins was filed this morning by the Brooks Waterfield Company for $13,647.

MONTHLY REPORTS.

Another Move to Better the Public Schools—Notes and Comments by the County Superintendent.

Editor Bulletin: Allow me to preface my school notes with the statement that we have adopted a system of monthly reports and a permanent register for each of the county schools. The idea is, the teacher shall, from his class-book, make out a full report of the pupil's standing and attendance at the close of each month, which he will record in the register and send to the parents. This register at the close of the school is placed in the hands of the trustees for the next teacher. Thus, we will not only have the incentive to excellence inspired by the monthly report, but also all of those advantages that come of a complete record of the pupil's standing—both as a present incentive to study and as a reference for teachers afterwards. With this system of records and the practical operation of the written work in the school, we are expecting better results this year than heretofore.

NO. 1—MURPHYSVILLE.

Pupils on roll, 50; present, 45. The first thing that strikes a visitor of this school is the appearance of the house. It may indeed be cited as a proof of the doctrine of evolution. It has so completely absorbed the colors of the grassless ridge upon which it is built, that one is almost ready to concede that it is a creature of environments, and as old as the hill itself. However this may be, I most sincerely hope to see the influence of a broader environment embracing the educational interest of the whole district directed to this point in the shape of a larger and better appointed school room.

I found the interior more satisfactory, being furnished with patent desks, and everything in the best of order, under the efficient management of Miss Tina Bledsoe, one of Mason County's most efficient teachers. The trustees are Dr. G. W. Gault and Alfred Tomlin. Miss Bledsoe has not yet taken up any written work, but that will be well managed by her, and there will no doubt be an increased interest on the part of the patrons when the monthly reports have been sent out. I was especially pleased to see the excellent working order of the school. Indeed this session promises to be second to none taught at this place before. L. W. GALBRAITH.

More Suits Against the Railroad Company.

James Roy, a resident of Pennsylvania, filed suit in the Circuit Court this morning against the Maysville and Big Sandy Railroad Company. He claims to be the owner of eighteen lots on Third street, Fifth ward, part of them lying in the creek bottom. Some of the lots were sold several years ago for taxes, Mr. Geo. T. Wood being the purchaser. He afterwards sold them to the railroad company. Mr. Roy now sues to recover these, and for $500 damages to the other lots.

County Clerk Ball also filed suit against the railroad company for $5,500 damages. Mr. Ball owns several pieces of real estate on Third street, and claims he was damaged in the sum named by the cutting down of that thoroughfare when the road was being built.

Cochran & Son are attorneys for Mr. Roy, and Mr. T. C. Campbell represents Mr. Ball.

JOHN P. TOIL living near Lair Station, Harrison County, was "landed" a few days ago by a slick rascal who was out fishing for "snickers." Mr. Toil signed what he thought to be a "contract for leasing the flexible corn and smoothing harrow, as patented by G. W. Siddons." "There was millions in it," of course—for the rascal. The contract turned out to be a note for $200, and Siddons wasn't very long in disposing of it at Cynthiana and skipping out.

THE city of Frankfort took its name from the killing, in 1779, of Stephen Frank, where the city now stands. A party of pioneers on their way from Harrodsburg to Mann's Lick, Jefferson County, for a supply of salt, camped there and threw up slight breast works for protection. They were attacked by the Indians during the night and Stephen Frank was killed, and two others, Bryan and Tomlin, were wounded. The spot after that time was known as Frank's Fork, hence Frankfort.—Exchange.
